Fifth Sunday of Easter

A Service of the Word

“Jesus wants us to know that we are branches who cannot stand alone. Jesus himself is our gardener who continuously nourishes our spirit. If we remain faithful to Him, our life will prosper and bear much fruit. If we remain loyal to our belief, the hard work we did will result into more than we ever expected. (May 22, 2019)”

Welcome and Announcements

Lighting of the Christ Candle

Prelude – *Adam Petrosino

*Call to Worship

One: We delight ourselves in the presence of Christ and Christ’s love for all creation.

All: Let us open our hearts to receive Christ’s abundant love.

One: Christ calls us to see him as the vine and for us to become the branches.

All: Let us seek to produce much fruit in God’s Garden where all are welcome.

One: Come, let us worship the Master Gardener, Creator of all that was, is and forever will be.

All: Amen and Asè (pronounced “ah-shay” and is Swahili for Amen).

*Gathering Prayer

Living God, we embrace your presence in our lives. Help us to grow stronger together in your garden of love. Plant us together in your peace. Root us together in your hope. Transform us together by your equal justice for all. In your loving presence, we pray. Amen.

*Gathering Hymn: NCH 21 - "God Reigns o'er All the Earth"

A READING OF THE WORD

First Reading Acts 8:26-40

In this season of Easter, we continue to read from the book of Acts in lieu of the Hebrew Scriptures lesson. Philip, one of the disciples, was told by an angel to go south of Jerusalem. On the road from Jerusalem to Gaza, he met a court official of the queen of Ethiopia, who was a eunuch. The eunuch had gone to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home, reading from the prophet Isaiah. There were non-Jews who believed there was one God, and who read and studied the scriptures. Non-Jews were allowed to worship in the outer court of the temple, but not all were able to convert. A eunuch would have been prevented by tradition. Instead, Philip explained the passage of the suffering servant in Isaiah 53:7-8 and interpreted it through the lens of Jesus. When they found water near the road, the eunuch asked Philip what was preventing him from being baptized, and Philip baptized him. The eunuch was one of the first converts, and church tradition holds he was the first missionary to Africa.

8 26 An angel of God spoke to Philip and said, "Be ready to set out at noon along the road that goes to Gaza, the desert road." 27 So Philip began his journey. It happened that an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official in charge of the entire treasury of Candace, the ruler of Ethiopia, had come to Jerusalem on a pilgrimage 28 and was returning home. He was sitting in his carriage and reading the prophet Isaiah.

29 The Spirit said to Philip, "Go up and meet that carriage."

30 When Philip ran up, he heard the eunuch reading Isaiah the prophet and asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 "How can I," the eunuch replied, "unless someone explains it to me?" With that, he invited Philip to get in the carriage with him. 32 This was the passage of scripture being read:

"You are like a sheep being led to slaughter, you are like a lamb that is mute in front of its shearers:

like them, you never open your mouth.

33 You have been humiliated and have no one to defend you.

Who will ever talk about your descendants, since your life on earth has been cut short?”

34 The eunuch said to Philip, “Tell me, if you will, about whom the prophet is talking—himself or someone else?”

35 So Philip proceeded to explain the Good News about Jesus to him.

36 Further along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “Look, there is some water right there. Is there anything to keep me from being baptized?”*

38 He ordered the carriage to stop; then Philip and the eunuch both went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. 39 When they came out of the water, the Spirit of God snatched Philip away; the eunuch didn’t see him anymore, and went on his way rejoicing.

40 Philip found himself at Ashdod next, and he went about proclaiming the Good News in all the towns, until he came to Caesarea.

*Psalm Response: Psalm 22: 25-31 (Responsively)

The end portion of Psalm 22, a prayer for help, turns to praise in verses 25-31. God has remained faithful despite the hardships the psalmist has faced, and the psalmist calls upon the people to praise God, vowing to declare God’s goodness before the congregation. God is the one who has dominion over all the nations, over the earth. Even those who are dead are part of God’s congregation of praise, and those living shall live for God, even the generations yet to come.

22 25 You are the theme of my praise in the Great Assembly, and I will fulfill my vows in the presence of your worshipers.

26 Those, who are poor, will eat and be satisfied, those who seek you will give you praise—long life to their hearts!

27 The whole earth, from one end to the other, will remember and come back to you;
all the families of the nations will bow down to you.

28 For yours is the kin-dom, you Ruler of nations!

29 Those who had feasted and devoured those who are poor—now they'll bow down;
those who are most affluent in the land will kneel before you. They all go down to the dust and none can keep themselves alive.

30 But my children will be faithful to you, and they will be told about God for generations to come.

31 They will come and proclaim your justice to a people yet unborn:
"All this God has done!"

Second Reading: 1 John 4:7-21

The writer of 1 John declares that God is love. If you know love, you know God, and if you do not love, you do not know God. God's love was revealed through God's Only Begotten, who has called us to love one another. No one has seen God, but we know God through the love we have for one another—that is how God is made known to us. We love because God first loved us. "Fear has to do with punishment" the writer declares, but love casts away fear. There is no fear in love. Note that this is not the same use of "fear" as often in used in the term "fear of God," for that word fear in the Hebrew scriptures might be better translated as "trembling awe." Perfect love from God as known through Jesus is not about a fear of hell or punishment, but instead mirroring the image of God's love in us. If we do not love our neighbors, we do not love God, for this is God's commandment through Christ. If we cannot love those we have seen (or known by other senses), we cannot love God whom we have never seen.

4 7 Beloved,

let us love one another because love is of God;
everyone who loves is begotten of God and has knowledge of God.

8 Those who do not love have known nothing of God, for God is love.

9 God's love was revealed in our midst in this way:
by sending the Only Begotten into the world, that we might have faith through the Anointed One.

10 Love, then, consists in this:
not that we have loved God,
but that God has loved us and has sent the Only Begotten to be an offering for our sins.

11 Beloved,
if God has loved us so, we must have the same love for one another.

12 No one has ever seen God.
Yet if we love one another,
God dwells in us,
and God's love is brought to perfection in us.

13 The way we know that we remain in God and God in us is that we have been given the Spirit.

14 We have seen for ourselves and can testify that God has sent the Only Begotten as Savior of the world.

15 When any acknowledge that Jesus is the Only Begotten, God dwells in them and they in God.

16 We have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us.
God is love,
and those who abide in love
abide in God, and God in them.

17 Love will come to perfection in us when we can face the day of judgment without fear—because our relation to this world is just like Christ's. 18 There is no fear in love, for perfect love drives out fear. To fear is to expect punishment, and anyone who is afraid is still imperfect in love.

19 We love because God first loved us. 20 If you say you love God but hate your sister or brother, you are a liar. For you cannot love God, whom you have not seen, if you hate your neighbor, whom you have seen. 21 If we love God, we should love our sisters and brothers as well; we have this commandment from God.

Gospel Reading: john 15:1-8

In these verses of John 15, Jesus uses the example of being a vine and we disciples are the vine branches. God is the vine-grower, and through Christ we are called to bear fruit. We cannot bear fruit if we do not abide in the true vine, which is Jesus. Branches that do not bear fruit are useless. We must live out our faith, otherwise, we are useless branches.

15 1 “I am the true vine, and my Abba is the vine grower 2 who cuts off every branch in me that doesn’t bear but prunes the fruitful ones to increase their yield.
3 You’ve been pruned already,
thanks to the word that I have spoken to you.
4 Live on in me, as I do in you.
Just as a branch cannot bear fruit of itself
apart from the vine, neither can you bear fruit
apart from me.
5 I am the vine;
you are the branches.
Those who live in me and I in them will bear abundant fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.
6 Those who don’t live in me are like withered, rejected branches, to be picked up and thrown on the fire and burned.
7 If you live on in me,
and my words live on in you, ask whatever you want and it will be done for you.
8 My Abba will be glorified if you bear much fruit and thus prove to be my disciples.

WE RESPOND

* Prayer of Response

Mystery of Mysteries, help us to seek your wisdom by living into your truth, and your truth is found in the love we have for one another. May our love be fearless. May our love be without judgment. May our love call us into your ways of justice, your ways of practicing kindness, and your ways of building peace. Mystery of Mysteries, we only know you in a glimpse; but we know you most fully in the abiding love we have for one another, a love that comes only from you, who gave your life for us. Amen.

*Hymn of Response: NCH 451 - "Be Now My Vision"

Invitation to Share Our Tithes and Offerings

One: Cultivating God, in your generosity, we receive new blessings with each passing day.

All: Great is your faithfulness, O God.

One: You offer us light from the sun, moon, and stars to guide, nurture, and lovingly shine upon all creation.

All: Great is your faithfulness, O God.

One: Your loving generosity is more than we could ever hope for and beyond imagination.

All: Great is your faithful abundance, O God.

One: Let us give our offerings with a heart of gratitude for God's Garden of blessings and love.

The Offertory – *Adam Petrosino

*Presentation of Offerings – Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, you heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

*Blessing of the Gifts

Compassionate God may these gifts be blessed by your light that cultivates love for all creation. As our gardener, O God, sprinkle water on our dry branches of despair to bring us hope. Shine your light of peace on our weariness to bring us justice for all. With Christ as our vine, save us from all that seek to bring us harm. May these fruitful gifts be a blessing in your garden of love. Amen.

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer (using "debts" and "debtors")

Our Father, who art in heaven Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power,
and the glory,
forever.
Amen.

GOING FORTH

*Parting Hymn: NCH 495 - "Called As Partners in Christ's Service"

*Commissioning

One: Go now, in the love of our God.

All: We will live for others through our God.

One: Go now, in the grace of Jesus.

All: We will forgive others, just as we have been forgiven.

One: Go now, in the community of the Spirit.

All: We will serve others in every need, in every place, in every heart.

*Benediction

Great is your faithfulness, O God, our strength and our Redeemer. Without you, nothing would be possible. Without you, there would be no light amidst the shadows. But, in Christ, we see that all things are possible. In Christ, we are the branches on the vine living according to your divine purpose. Creating God, help us to see your faithfulness as we leave this place of worship. Let us grow in your mercy. Strengthen us as we seek to produce much fruit for the harvest of your love here on earth as it is in heaven. In Christ's name, we pray. Amen.

**Cinco de Mayo, or the fifth of May, is a holiday that celebrates the date of the Mexican army's May 5, 1862 victory over France at the Battle of Puebla during the Franco-Mexican War. The day, which falls on Sunday, May 5 in 2024, is also known as Battle of Puebla Day. While it is a relatively minor holiday in Mexico (it is not Mexican Independence Day), in the United States, Cinco de Mayo has evolved into a commemoration of Mexican culture and heritage, particularly in areas with large Mexican-American populations. – from History.com*
